CORNELL ON EDGE HARVARD HUSKIES

Thiaca. N. Y., Oct. 26—A final test with strength of Cornell's offensive arm and a 45-minute secret signal drill in the baseball cage yesterday afternoon wound up Cornell's last bard practice for the Cornell game. The Ithacans made the best impresston of recent practices. Twice from the 20-yard line the 'varsity forced its hay through the scrubs' team for a touchdown. Haucke and Speed, sec ond string backs, were placed on the varsity, and it is probable that Dr. Sharpe will use them part of the time at least in the Harvard game.

Haucke is a strong line plunger, while Speed on end runs is one of the fastest men on the squad. Benedict, left half back, did not scrimmage, but he is slated to play against Harvard, with Speed and Van Horn as subs. Hoffman's work has not been altogether satisfactory this week and Haucke is pressing him closely.

'varsity, but Right Tackle Jewett, who was hurt yesterday, did not get into the scrimmage, Dixon playing the position. There is a strong probability, however; that Red Tilley will play right tackle in the Harvard game if Jewette does not improve soon. Carry has definitely won the centre position from Brown, at least for this game.

CASEY STAR OF HARVARD ELEVEN AGAINST FRESHMEN

Cambridge, Oct. 26-Harvard's first for the Cornell game, but later went into a hard 10-minute scrimmage against the freshmen team and wound up with a lively mix-up with the scrubs. The freshmen, who are about heavy as the 'varsity and, according to some of the coaches, more agfight, holding the regulars to small gains and, in a few plays, ripping through the first team's line for some

Percy Haughton took the ball away from the freshmen when he found they were gaining so much ground, and on the first play after the ball was received by the regulars, Eddie Casey broke loose for a 65-yard end run and the only touchdown the varsity made.

The second team was in charge of Reggie Brown Cornell's plays being used by the team, but with no great

There were two temporary changes on the first team, Lovell replacing Wheeler at left tackle, and H. Cooldge being in Harte's place on the right wing. Both the regular players, however, were on the side lines and did some of the preliminary work. Caner, the right tackle, received another hard crack on the leg yester-day and was replaced by Sweetser, who did his first scrimmage in two ooks more than ever as if the team could have to be without Clark's services, at least to start the Cornell game. Lancaster and Parker, the new linemen, worked at the tackles with the substitutes. Casey did some good running with the ball, taking it in almost every rush against the freshmen. He now seems sure of his place against all comers.

BILL DONOVAN THINKS CHANGE IN RULE ABOUT RELIEF PITCHER IS DUE

New York, Oct. 26—Manager Don-towan, of the Yankees, will advocate a new rule this winter. "Wild" Willlam save the measure requiring change pitcher to pitch until the bater facing him has been either put out r has reached first base is one sided. patter to the same requirements? If new pitcher has to stay out there ntil the batter has been disposed of there until he has been disposed of? That is William's argument.

He thinks his proposed arrange-ment only fair. As it is now, he contends, the rule permits the side at bat to manipulate pinch batters withit a corresponding privilege to the field side to manipulate pitchers. For example:-A right handed batter is put in in a pinch to bat against a left right handed twirler.

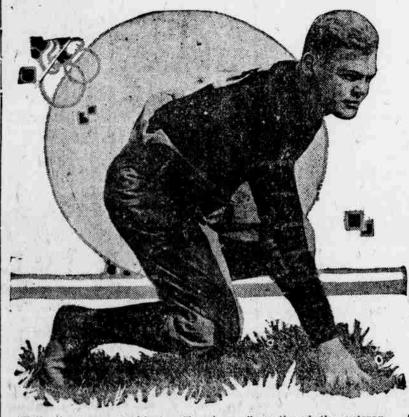

The other manager can take the first pinch hitter out right away and send in a second pinch hitter, thus calling on two pinch hitters if needs be, one getting out of the game without doing anything, whereas the new has had a whack at him.

REPRIMAND BUT NO FINES FOR RED SOX BALL TEAM

CALLAHAN BOOKED FOR TINKER'S JOB AS CUB MANAGER

New York, Oct. 26-It is being inmated on apparently very good au- Bob Bingham returned to the Yale thorfty that important changes involving the Pittsburg and Chicago National League clubs are about to be ing form of the season. The varsity made. These rumors are to the effect that when the 1917 season begins Jimmy Callahan, now manager of the Pirates, will be at 'he helm for the Chicago clubs and that Joe Tinker present manager of the Cubs, will e without a job.

It is well known in baseball cirles here that Callahan and Barney Dreyfuss almost reac'ted the parting point last summer through an act of Callahan's and that Dreyfuss is pretty certain to be looking for a new man-ager. It is not believed Callahan is on the Pittsburg reserve list, although his contract is said to call for another year of service in Pitisburg.

Callahan had a fairly good year in Pittsburg and has improved the Pirates to some extent, but his differences with Drevfuss, it is said, are sufficient to cause the owner of the club to seek Callahan's release.

will head the team next year. The ormer manager of the Pirates not said anything in regard to the rumor. He repeatedly has stated that he is through with the game. He has a large farm in Kansas and it takes all his time to look after it. Chick Fraser, veteran scout for the Pirates and old-time pitcher, also has been mentioned as a probable successor to Callahan. A change such as suggested, which would take Callahan back to Chicago, probably would be welcomed by Callahan. He s well liked in Chicago.

Probably no more popular man ever ed a baseball club in that city. And a man so thoroughly efficient in team building as Callahan would be a most welcome figure in the ranks of the Cubs. Callahan's family lives in Chiago and his home is there.

Stockholders of the Cubs are said to be crying loudly over the payroll of the Cubs, and Owner Weeghman is reported to be lending an attentive ear following a year in which Joe Tinker wrecked the Cubs and paid out money by the barrel for youthful players who have done very little The stockholders are believed to be making a demand for a slash in Tinker's salary, and it is thought certain Weeghman will attempt to pare some when Tinker shows up to sign the pa pers again.

Tinker is like the average man—he vants all the money he can get. So is probable he will raise a rumpus and then, if things can be adjusted it will be Weeghman's cue to drop Tinker and sign Calahan for leadership of the club.

This deal is not expected to be mentioned until the National League magnates gather in New York the sec ond week in December for their annual meeting, and then several trade cooked up already are expected to be dropped on the public. Wilbert Robinson, Miller Huggins and George Stallings have had their ears to the sational swaps are likely.

Carpentier's Manager

Slain in War

If Georges Carpentier emerges un scathed from the war he will have to get a new manager, for, according to reports, M. Descamps has been slain somewhere in France." Englishmen and American used to laugh at Descamps, who was an excitable little Frenchman. Descamps fairly worshipped Carpentier. The handsome boxer was his idol, his king, almost his god, and not merely a meal-ticket. If Georges got a beating it hurt Des-camps more than it did Carpentier, and when the French champion was victorious, Descamps was always the first to fall into his arms and kiss him. No father ever adored a son more than Descamps loved Carpentier. His public manifestations of affection seemed absurd and ridiculous to Anglo-Saxon eyes-but when it came to the test M. Descamps was willing to die for his country? Now can you laugh at him?

ANNIVERSARIES OF RING BATTLES

1830-Deaf Burke defeated Bob Hampson in 45 minutes at Hampden Common, Eng. This bout affords an early illustration of the poor judgment shown by champions in picking candidates for pugilistic honors. Jim Corbett's enthusiasm over Tom Cowler, the big Englishman who has proved to be an easy mark for all the scrappers, was no greater than the admiration of Tom Spring for Bob Hampson. Spring, the greatest champion of that period, retired undefeated in 1824. Spring had been the protege of Tom Cribb—one case in which a champton picked a live one—and when he quit the ring he began to look about for a young fellow he could develop into a champ. Hampson, a Liverpool youth, looked mighty good to old Tom, and under Spring's careful handling, Hampson was soon ready to challenge Deaf Burke, the leading candidate for the heavyweight honors. On the strength of Spring's judgment, Bob was a favorite in the betting, but he didn't have a chance with the Deaf 'Un, which won as he pleased.
